Black recently said in an interview in the Yale News that he was against numbering the players. Football at Yale, he declared, was run for the students, and the public be hanged. There was a storm of protest from alumni against that attitude. Evidently pressure was brought to bear on Black to oblige "the poor old public," which builds stadiums for colleges. The staff of head coach "Tad" Jones has been completed by the appointment of Clarence Alcott as coach for the ends.

HARRY REFUSES TO FACE HIS BROTHER

Two Covaleskies Meet When Tigers Tackle Indians.

CLEVELAND. Ohio.. April 18.—That sentiment still cuts deeply into baseball was shown here yesterday, when liarry Covaleski, star of the Detroit pitching staff, refused to pitch against his "kid" brother, Stanley, when it came time to start the game. Harry said he "didn't want to try to defeat Stanley in his first big league game. When Stanley struck out Ty Cobb in the first inning Harry came out from the Detroit dugout and congratulated his brother. Stanley came to Cleveland from the Portiand Pacific Coast League team, and his showing was highly gratifying to Manager Lee Fohl. For eleven imnings he held the Detroit sluggers to one run, but lost out in the tweitin. The younger Covaleski was opposed by Cunningham, a Tiger recruit from Unattanooga.
